CHAPTER 296.

AN ACT authorizing cities in this state to furnish water to adjoining cities or villages and the inhabitants thereof for certain purposes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Cities may furnish water to adjoining villages.

SECTION 1. Any city in this state owning, maintaining or operating a system of water-works is hereby authorized to contract for supplying and to furnish and supply to any adjoining city or village, not owning or operating a separate system of water-works, or any of the inhabitants thereof, water for fire, mechanical and all domestic purposes and uses, and for that purpose to connect its water pipe and mains with the water pipes and mains of any such other city or village; and any such adjoining city or village is hereby authorized to contract with any such adjoining city, owning, maintaining or operating a system of water-works as aforesaid, for supplying and furnishing water for the purpose aforesaid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 22, 1897.
